

EVENING CONCERTS.

East River Park Petition May Be Aoted on Monday.

Commissioner Dana to Be Asked to Call a Special Meeting.

Alleged Objections That Can Be Obtained at a Trifling Expense.

Now that the Chicago Convention is over, it is probable that speedy action will be taken by the Board of Park Commissioners in the matter of changing the hour of the concert at East River Park from 4 o'clock in the afternoon to 8 o'clock in the evening. In common with many other city officials, Commissioner Dana, President of the Board, has been in Chicago assisting in the work of nominating Democratic standard-bearers for the coming campaign. Commissioner Straus has also been in Chicago for the past week, and Commissioner Tappan is in Europe.

Commissioner Gallup was the only member of the Board to town this morning. To an Evening World reporter he said that Commissioner Dana and Straus were expected back to-morrow, and as he himself would be obliged to leave town in a few days he would ask President Dana to call a special meeting of the Board, possibly for Monday.

Secretary Burns, of the Board, this morning added to the already long list of signatures to the petition for evening concerts over two hundred names which have been sent to The Evening World since the mammoth petition was handed in over a week ago, and he assured an Evening World reporter that the petition would be presented to the Board at its next meeting.

Before leaving for Chicago President Dana said that it was necessary for the full Board to act on the matter. He seemed impressed from the fact that 2,000 residents about East River Park had signed the petition presented in their name by The Evening World, that the change to evening concerts was generally desired by the frequenters of that pleasure resort.

The principal objection to the change, urged by both President Dana and Commissioner Gallup, was that in their present condition the railings on the esplanade along the river front and the south end of the park were dangerous and a menace to the safety of the children who would be drawn to the park in their numbers by evening concerts. President Dana said that he would investigate the matter, and see what could be done to remedy the difficulty.

As he has been absent in Chicago since, it is probable that nothing has yet been done to render the fence and railings safe. Such improvements have been intended, it is learned, with the permanent alteration and extension of the park, and although the plans for the same are complete and only awaiting the approval of President Dana and the Board, it seems hardly probable that the prospective improvements will be finished this year. Evening concerts during the present summer might thus be delayed, although at least two thousand people who cannot now attend the day concerts are not only desirous but eager for the change.

Commissioner Gallup admitted this morning that the impending dangers could be temporarily avoided, at least, by the construction of a rough fence at the dangerous points in question. The trifling expense that this would entail should not hinder favorable and speedy action by the Commissioners on this much desired change.

The people are anxious for evening concerts and are hopeful that their request will be granted by the Commissioners at their next meeting.

ROBBED IN THE POST-OFFICE.

A Footpad Wreasts from a Boy a Pouch of Registered Mail.

The police are to-day investigating a remarkable tale of highway robbery by daylight, said to have occurred in the entrance to the general Post-office at an hour when the neighborhood is thronged with people.

A maid Meyer, an open-faced, light-haired, blue-eyed girl, about 18 years of age, who lives at 120 E. 12th St., has been for two and one-half years employed by the jewelry manufacturing house of Samuel Meyer & Co., 48 and 50 Maiden lane, has been in the habit of carrying the firm's mail pouch, containing valuable packages for registry to the post-office each afternoon.

He set out at 4.15 P. M. yesterday with the pouch accompanied by another errand boy who carried an armful of less valuable packages for the general mail. The boys separated at the entrance to the post-office. Meyer went to the registry department and the other boy to deposit his packages in the general mail box.

At 5 o'clock David Meyer, his face blanched and tear and trouble in his eyes, appeared at the City Hall police station, out of breath and reported that just as he was about to ascend the post-office stairs he was struck a blow from behind and a mail pouch full of registered mail was snatched from his hands. Meyer said that he was taken to Police Headquarters, where he described the robbery, and the police think they recognize him. No arrests have yet been made, and Detective Carey is investigating the case.

At the establishment of Samuel Meyer & Co. it was said to-day that David Meyer was not related to any member of the firm, that they had no reason to suspect him of any complicity in the robbery and that the robber must have known the custom of the concern. The pouch, it was said, contained several small parcels addressed to as many customers. The goods in the parcels were articles of small jewelry, to the aggregate value of about $200.

BABY DOESN'T KNOW.

Detectives Puzzled by a Little Boy's Baby's Adventure.

There is a ten-day-old baby at Police Headquarters that is a sort of Chinese puzzle to the detectives of the Elizabeth street station.

A woman, giving her name as Rachel Cohen and describing herself as a "chicken plucker," of 65 West street, brought the baby to the station on Thursday night. She said that a woman had given her the little one to take care of for a few minutes, but failed to return. Her own husband had been for and found her in conversation with William Freeman, of 65 West street. The pair seemed to be very happy, and were laughing in a good laugh when Cohen arrested them. When questioned again, Rachel Cohen said that Freeman had given her the baby and that a woman in Forsyth street had given him the child. At No. 65 West street, she was not known, and when accused of giving a false address admitted that she lived in Forsyth street, Brooklyn.

Fete Champetre This Evening.

The Fete Champetre which was to have been held on the grounds of the Staten Island Cricket Club, at Livingston, last evening, but was postponed owing to the thunder-storm, will be held this evening.

MANY CLEVELAND BANNERS.

Democrats Promptly Organizing Campaign Clubs.

Tammany Hall's Big Banner—Harrison's Ratification.

New York Democrats are going about the work of organizing for the great campaign much more promptly and vigorously than their opponents. Indeed, little has been done yet by the Republicans, though their candidates have been nearly two weeks in the field, while within ten hours after the nomination of Grover Cleveland steps were taken in this city for the organization of clubs in a dozen different fields.

Aside from the permanent Democratic organizations, the Cleveland men of the New York Stock Exchange were first in the field, calling having been organized in less than six hours after the nomination for a preliminary meeting for the organization of a Stock Exchange Cleveland Club.

The Produce Exchange men were next, but they went further. They met and organized the Produce and Maritime Exchange Cleveland and Stevenson club hours before dawn. The Stevenson nomination had been assured, leaving the latter part of their club title to be filled in.

Their meeting was held in the office of E. D. Neustadt, and 300 names were enrolled within thirty minutes. Forrest H. Parker, ex-President of the Produce Exchange, was made President; J. T. A. McGraw, Treasurer; Alexander C. Meakin, Secretary, and E. D. Neustadt, Chairman of the Executive Committee. A. E. O'Boyle, head of the thirty-seven Vice-Presidents.

A campaign club will be formed at the consolidated Exchange this evening.

The telegraph operators, women and other employees, seventy-five strong, organized a Cleveland and Stevenson campaign club last evening, and an effort will be made to affiliate with a similar club of Western Union and railroad telegraphers.

The campaign-baited man is already very much in evidence about the hotel corners, and Cleveland nodes are selling like hot cakes, while a stock of Illinois portraits of Cleveland, saved by some far-sighted dealer since 1888, had ready buyers.

The great Cleveland and Stevenson banner of Tammany Hall was not quite ready this morning. The painted portraits were not quite dry, but it will appear to-morrow.

It is the most gorgeous transparency ever seen in this city. It is not less than 40 feet high, and will cover the whole front of the fourteenth street Wigwag from the tops of the entrances to the feet of the statue of Tammany. It has a red ground, blue border and white lettering, the words "Cleveland and Stevenson" being written in large letters. Above it will be displayed two oval portraits of the candidates, to whom the support of Tammany has been pledged on the night of the election of great chief Croker.

The Single Tax Club this morning displayed a net banner across Twenty-sixth street, near the Lexington avenue club-house. It bears a fine portrait of Grover Cleveland in its center.

The Star of Victory of the Sagamore Club is the talk of the town. It will blaze out in many colored lights till Nov. 8—and after, say the Sagamores.

The Harmon Democrats' Club's banners make that party the Hundred and Twenty-fifth street trait.

The arrangements for tonight's ratification meeting between the Democrats' club-house are complete, and it will be a rowdy affair. There is much speculation as to the probable state organization and whether a chairman Murphree will seek to retain his place at the head of the state forces, but the talkers are all at sea, and will be so till the return to-morrow, when the papers from Chicago. Opinions of leaving meet in labor organizations have been sought for eagerly, and the conclusion seems to be that Cleveland is strong because of his views on the tariff question.

Master Workman Henry A. Hicks, of the Building Constructors' District Assembly No. 10, and Chairman of the State Committee of the People's party, says: "I believe Cleveland's nomination will help our party in the West. It will accept neither Harrison nor Cleveland."

Mac New Hart says: "I favored Cleveland. Although a Republican, I shall vote for him because of his views on the tariff question." John Killoran, Housewrights' Union, says: "Cleveland will carry this state without trouble."

Many said that while they preferred Hill as a stronger man among workmen, they would vote for Cleveland and were personally in favor of him.

MR. REID AT HOME.

His Visit to Washington, He Says, Was to See Mr. Morton.

Whiteley Reid arrived from Washington at 7 o'clock this morning, and was driven at once to his town house, 431 Madison avenue, where he breakfasted with his private secretary.

Mr. Reid was in his study, and asked him about the result of his conference with President Harrison yesterday, and was told by Reid that he was there for the purpose of the National Committee. I can say nothing. In fact, I saw very little. I went to Washington in company with Russell Harrison, to pay my respects to Vice-President Morton, in accordance with the usual custom. Neither Mr. Harrison nor myself was aware that Mr. Morton had left Washington for his home at Fairview, and I was therefore disappointed.

Aside from visiting Mr. Morton, my trip to Washington was on private business. I should attend to my mail this morning, and then go to my farm and take a rest.

Asking his opinion of the Democratic nomination, Mr. Reid merely smiled and shook his head, saying he did not care to talk about it.

RUINS IN A CYCLOPE'S TRACK.

Atlantic Highlands Visted by a Wild Western Gale.

CUPID SENT TO THE ISLAND.

Lover Lynch Given Three Months for Recklessness.

Justice Meade, in the Harlem Police Court this morning, sentenced Edward Lynch, twenty-six, a race-track follower, to three months on the island, on complaint of Miss Annie House, twenty-one, of 238 East One Hundred and Ninth street, who said Lynch had formerly kept company with Annie, but was lately discarded by the complainant on account of his dissipated habits.

On Tuesday evening Lynch is said to have forced open the door of Mrs. House's apartment, and to have given her a terrible beating and threatened Annie's life.

AN ITALIAN VILLAGE BURIED.

Dead and Dying Dug Out After a Landslide at Monte Sasso.

More Tributes to Bismarck—General News by Cable.

ROME, June 24.—A terrible accident, caused by a landslide, occurred to-day at Monte Sasso, on the line of the Bologna and Florence Railway. This railway runs through the Apennines and is one of the most boldly constructed lines in Italy.

A large area of land on the mountain side slid down on the houses below, completely burying them. Some of the people managed to escape, but thus far thirty persons, killed or injured, have been taken from beneath the debris. The work of rescue is being conducted as rapidly as possible. The railway is covered with earth and rock to a great depth, and all traffic is consequently suspended.

This line is particularly liable to interruption from landslides, and the village of Vico, one of the stations on the road, was completely destroyed by earth sliding down from Monte Vigese. On the left of the line, near the village of Sasso, is the subterranean aqueduct built by Augustus.

BISMARCK'S GROWING PRESTIGE.

His Statements No Longer Regarded as Ill-Humored Grumblings.

LONDON, June 23.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times remarks on the fact that the reputation given to Prince Bismarck in that city was equal to that ever accorded any foreign sovereign. The correspondent also says:

Prince Bismarck will return to Friedrichsruhe with an enhanced prestige. It has clearly been too hastily assumed that his influence with the German people is a thing of the past. His inspired statements, which were beginning to be regarded as the grumblings of an ill-humored statesman, will now bear a different complexion.

Mexico, June 24.—Prince Bismarck arrived in this city from Vienna at 2 o'clock this morning. Despite the earliness of the hour the streets through which the Prince was to pass on his way to Herr Lenbach's villa were lined with a demonstrative people.

As the Prince and his party drove along the crowd broke out into wild and long-continued cheering.

Prince Luitpold, Regent of Bavaria, has ordered that the Bavarian railways furnish free transportation to Prince Bismarck and all the members of his party. He has also placed a special post and telegraph office at the disposal of the Prince.

LONDON, June 24.—A special to the Daily News from Berlin says that in the conference that have taken place between Bismarck, the Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Chancellor von Caprivi, not a single change was made in the relations between Italy and Germany either verbally or in writing.

Langbein, of 5 Beekman street, retained by Jean de Vries Hoffman, of 609 East One Hundred and Forty-third street, to make good the latter's claim to the property of the late faith-cure priest, Father Mollinger, told an Evening World reporter this morning that he had just received a letter from Surrogate Connor, of Pittsburgh, announcing that Gregor Meyer, President of the Allegheny (Pa.) Trust Company, was appointed administrator of the Mollinger estate last Tuesday, and had filed a bond for a $100,000.

Jean de Vries Hoffman says that he is a first cousin of Father Mollinger. Hoffman has a brother and four sisters, who will also claim shares of the Mollinger estate, which is said to be worth a million dollars.
